

COUNTIANS GET 20 PRIZES IN POULTRY SHOW

Twenty more prizes for Adams Countians, all of them for entries in the poultry division, were included in today's list of award winners announced at the State Farm Show at Harrisburg.

Cyril Staub of New Oxford added to his already long list of prizes with these new honors: Two firsts for a cock and a hen in the French breeds; first for a speckled Sussex hen; first for a white laced red Cornish hen and trio, firsts for a buff Cornish cock and for a hen, pullet and old trio of the same breed; second for a white laced red Cornish cock; third for a gold-spangled Hamburg cock and fifth for a hen of the same breed.

Theodore Stough Jr., New Oxford R. 1, took a first prize with white capons and Arlan Reynolds, New Oxford R. 2, placed first with red capons he displayed.

New Oxford Area Winners

A first prize for a New Hampshire Red female trio was awarded to William Bosserman, New Oxford R. 1. Francis Myers, East Berlin R. 1, placed second in the miscellaneous trios class of the vocational division of the poultry show and Robert Miller, New Oxford R. D., took third place in the same class.

Reynolds also took a first place award for miscellaneous capons in the vocational section of the poultry show while a fifth place in the same section went to Dale Bear, East Berlin R. 1, for Cornish and Cornish Cross capons he displayed.

Larry Baker, Abbottstown R. 1, was the only winner listed today in the 4-H egg display. Larry placed sixth with a dozen brown eggs in a vocational class.

Chester White Swine Breeders of the state elected John Griest, New Oxford R. 1, as vice president of their association at the annual meeting of their organization at the Farm Show building.

ASKS HUGE SUM FROM CONGRESS FOR EDUCATION

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower asked Congress today to provide $1.4 billion dollars in federal grants over the next five years to help conquer the nation's critical school shortage.

In a special message, the President also asked authority for federal purchase of up to 750 million dollars worth of local school bonds — if school districts cannot sell them in private markets at reasonable interest rates — and 20 million dollars for grants to the states for school planning.

In summary, this would mean a federal outlay over five years of some two billion with 750 million to be returned through eventual payment of bonds.

Matching Formula For States

The states would be required to match the federal grants for construction.

The matching, however, would be under a formula whereby the wealthiest states put up $2 for each $1 of federal money while the poorer states would get $2 for each $1 they put out.

Eisenhower said a cardinal principle of his program is that "federal grants must not reduce the incentive for state and local efforts — but rather should stimulate an increase in such efforts."

Segregation Not Mentioned

He made no mention of a question already stirring Congress — whether federal education aid should go only to states adhering to the Supreme Court's ruling barring race segregation.

One reason Congress got nowhere in the last session on school aid was a split over this question.

Eisenhower's plan for needier states to get the biggest share of federal money collides with a bill by Rep. Kelley (D-Pa) which would supply 1 1/2 billion in federal grants over a four-year period. This bill, already approved by the House Education Committee, is due for early action.

The Kelley plan would provide money to the states on the basis of the number of school age children.

Three Students To Join District Band

Three Gettysburg High School students went to Middletown this morning for three days of rehearsals and concerts as members of the District Band. They were accompanied there by Robert G. Zeigler, band director at the high school.

The group included Hugh M. McIlhenny, second clarinetist; Elizabeth Dorr, third clarinetist; and Carolyn Ketterman, alto clarinetist. Daily rehearsal will prepare for concerts Friday and Saturday evenings.

BANQUETS END CANNING SEASON AT MUSSELMAN'S

Marking the end of the 1955 apple canning season, the annual employees' banquets for seasonal and year round workers of the C. H. Musselman Company's Biglerville and Gardners plants were held at noon today in the respective cafeterias.

Apple processing at the Biglerville plant, which started early in September, centered around canned sliced apples packed in several sized cans, apple pie filling and quick frozen apple slices in 30-lb. containers. The apple butter plant at Biglerville was operated on a two-shift basis during part of the season in order to meet the proposed pack. This department has been converted to the manufacture of jelly and operates on a year around schedule.

Two New Products

Major production throughout the entire season at the Gardners plant was on applesauce providing an outlet for growers for almost all varieties of apples. Also coming off the lines were two new products: Spiced apples produced on a commercial scale for the second consecutive year and apple raspberry sauce made this year on an experimental basis.

Commenting on the season, John A. Hauser, president of the company, pointed out a radical change in the operating schedule. "This was our first experience operating the plants on a 40-hour week during the canning season. In line with the trend of the times, it proved to be very popular with the employees, many of whom are housewives. The biggest problem was to move the crop in the usual time while working a shorter week. The fine cooperation of our growers and an efficient scheduling system resolved the problem with no apparent hardship," he said.

In summarizing the season from the standpoint of quality and quantity, Donald E. Horst, crop supervisor, cited a recent release from the United States Department of Agriculture. The 1955 Pennsylvania crop is placed at 5,700,000 bushels as compared to 6,020,000 bushels in 1954. Nationally the crop is expected to reach 105,293,000 bushels compared to 109,854,000 in 1954.

Good '56 Prospects

"Generally, apple sizes exceeded last year," said Horst, "while the quality appears to have been about on a par. Significant concerning quality is the fact that apples are not holding in cold storage as well as normally. This is attributed to last summer's drought which was broken, finally, by excessive rainfall that came in the wake of the hurricanes. These same extremes in weather, however, were conducive to excellent bud development which indicates good prospects for the 1956 crop."

Leader Offers New Tax Plan

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Leader said today he would approve a sales tax to raise half of what is needed to balance the state budget — if Republicans, in turn, provide the necessary votes for administration tax proposals.

The governor outlined his new position — breaking away from previous flat statements he would veto a sales tax — to his weekly news conference.

"I want to publicly propose that the Republican leadership provide a tax program to raise one-half of the new revenue needed, approximately 25 1/2 million dollars, and we shall do likewise to propose a tax program to raise 25 1/2 million dollars," Leader told reporters.

Would Swap Votes

"We obviously would supply the required number of votes in the Democratic-controlled House to give them a constitutional majority for their program. They would reciprocate to give us a constitutional majority in the Republican-dominated Senate."

"This would mean that they would take their full and complete responsibility for their Republican sales tax program as we would take full and complete responsibility for the Democratic tax program."

ALUMNI WILL DINE SATURDAY AT LANCASTER

Approximately 25 persons will attend the annual mid-winter meeting of the Gettysburg College Alumni Association Executive Committee to be held Saturday, at 10 o'clock in the Hotel Brunswick, Lancaster.

J. Robert Gulick, a Gettysburg graduate and a member of the staff of WGAL-TV, Lancaster, will speak on "Relation of Television to Education."

Ralph W. Hoch, Drexel Hill, president of the Gettysburg Alumni Association, will preside. Other officers of the association expected to attend are vice president, William H. B. Stevens, Harrisburg; recording secretary, Elizabeth M. Krumrine, Washington, D. C.; alumni secretary, C. Paul Cessna, and treasurer, Thomas E. Weaver, Catasauqua.

Committee Heads Coming

A number of Alumni Association past presidents will participate in the meetings, including Horace G. Potts, York; Clyde E. Gerberick, Mount Joy; William H. Patrick, Philadelphia; Rev. Dr. Frederick Seibel Jr., Westminster, Md.; John A. Apple, Sunbury; Dr. Clarence L. S. Raby, Gettysburg; Rev. Harry H. Beideman, Hanover, and Roy C. Dougherty, Reading.

EASTER SEAL SALE HERE TO OPEN MARCH 10

Committees for 1956 were appointed and the dates for the annual Easter Seal sale were set at the January meeting of the directors of the Adams County Crippled Children's Society here Wednesday afternoon.

The annual seal sale, which is the society's chief source of funds for its work through the year, will be conducted from March 10 to April 10.

Two new directors were chosen Wednesday to fill vacancies on the board. Dr. James Allison was elected to take the place vacated by Dr. Joseph J. Baker of Gettysburg and Warren C. Harner, Littlestown, was named to succeed Wilbur A. Bankert, also of Littlestown, who resigned.

Buy Wheel Chair, Shoes

Dr. Howard S. Fox, president of the society, and Miss Ellen R. Miller were designated as the society's representatives to the Adams County Welfare Services Council.

Another wheel chair to be available for use throughout the county through the state nurses has been purchased by the society for $14. The chair, ordered last month, has been received and will be put to use as soon as a name plate identifying it as the property of the society is attached.

Bills approved for payment Wednesday included special shoes for three crippled youngsters in the county and physical therapy treatments at the Warner Hospital for crippled children whose parents are unable to pay the full amount of the charges.

List Of Committees

The board voted to change the fiscal year of the county society to conform to that of the state (Continued On Page 4)

New Born Baby Dies This Morning

David Sharrah, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Sharrah, 236 W. Middle St., died this morning about five hours after his birth at the Annie M. Warner Hospital. The child was born at about 4 o'clock.

He is survived by one sister, Dorothy Louise, at home; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sharrah, of Orrtanna, and the maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ruth Shindedecker, Orrtanna.

Graveside services will be arranged by Bender's Funeral Home.

ESSO EDUCATION FOUNDATION IS AIDING COLLEGE

Gettysburg College is one of 15 colleges and universities in the state sharing in $1,067,900 in grants announced today by the Esso Education Foundation.

Gettysburg College's check for $2,000 from the Esso Foundation has been received. It was announced today by Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, member of the interim administration committee there. "We are very grateful for the interest shown by the Esso Education Foundation in the needs of liberal arts colleges and we are specially gratified that Gettysburg College was chosen to share in this gift," Dr. Fortenbaugh said.

A total of 193 colleges and universities are receiving the unrestricted grants from the foundation organized recently by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey and a group of affiliated companies. The total number of grants is 226 and includes sums to 11 institutions for building and other capital projects. Ten institutions have been given a total of $99,900 for assistance in carrying out research projects in the physical sciences and human relations.

Widely Distributed

The largest portion of the gift, $568,000, is being distributed among the list of 193 privately supported educational institutions including Gettysburg College. The sums are being given "for undergraduate education."

The recipients were broadly distributed both geographically and by types of institutions. Included are denominational and non-denominational, men's, women's and coeducational colleges and universities. Forty states and the District of Columbia are represented on the list.

66 Third-Class Passengers Perish In Korean Ship Fire

SEOUL (AP)—Sixty-six passengers, trapped in a third-class cabin, were burned to death today as flames roared through a small coastal ship, Korean national police reported.

Police said a cabin boy dropped a kerosene lamp, turning the cluttered, below-deck cabin into an inferno.

The cabin boy, Park Chong Chul, 20, and the captain, Kim Han Suk, were arrested on a charge of negligence.

Ship Was Docked

The 130-ton ship was docked at Samcheonpo, about 60 miles west of Pusan on Korea's southern coast. Eighteen persons were reported injured.

ANNUAL PHOTO SHOW OPENS AT BANK MARCH 16

With cash awards offered to winners in three entry classifications, the eleventh annual Gettysburg Photographic Exhibit will be held March 16 to 25 at the Gettysburg National Bank under the joint sponsorship of the bank and the Gettysburg Photographic Society.

The exhibit is open to anyone who lives, works or is a student in Adams County or Emmitsburg.

A first prize of $15, second prize of $10 and third prize of $5 will be awarded to judges' selections in the black and white classification and for color prints and color slides.

Must Be Own Photos

The pictures submitted must have been taken by the person entering the photo in the show. There is no requirement that the pictures must have been developed and printed by the exhibitor.

Prints made in any photographic medium will be considered. Black and white and other monochrome prints may not be smaller than 8 x 10 inches nor larger than 16 x 20 inches. The request has been made that the photos be placed on standard 16 x 20 mounts.

Color prints but not transparencies will be accepted in any size 5 x 7 inches and larger. Color transparencies will be limited to those in 2 x 2 inch mounts and each contestant is limited to five of the transparencies.

March 7 Is Deadline

Any number of black and white or color prints may be entered by any contestant. The name and address of the exhibitor must be placed on the back of each picture. The deadline for show entries is 2:30 p.m. on Wednesday, March 7. The pictures will be returned after the show and may be secured by the exhibitors after the close of the display.

The entries will be judged by the members of the Gettysburg Photographic Society who will display a group of prints of their own that will not be in competition for the prizes.

BURY MRS. PAXTON

Funeral services for Mrs. Barbara Ellen Paxton, 77, York Springs, who died at her home Sunday evening, were held Wednesday afternoon at the Pitzer Funeral Home at York Springs with the Rev. Paul Smith, a former pastor of the York Springs Church of God, now of Taylor, Pa., officiating. Interment was made in the Goodview Cemetery. The pallbearers were Lloyd Decker, John R. Pentz, George Howe and Harvey Miller.

218 Deaths

Of the births, 123 male and 95 female occurred in the borough. There were 20 male and 12 female deaths in Cumberland Twp., five male and five female deaths in Strabon Twp. one male death in Freedom, and neither births nor deaths in Highland.

Eighteen births and 18 deaths represent the 18 infants who were stillborn. Nine of the stillbirths were female and nine males.

The records show December 1954 set a record for the number of births in any one month locally. 107 were born in that month. In November 1955 there were 102.

The month by month figures for births with the first figure representing 1955 and the second 1954 and with stillbirths not included, follow: January, 91 and 77; February, 85 and 80; March, 101 and 93; April, 75 and 65; May, 83 and 84; June, 83 and 67; July, 92 and 84; August, 87 and 93; September, 101 and 76; October, 84 and 77; November, 102 and 84; December, 84 and 107.

ALARM CALLS SOME FIREMEN FROM MEETING

Gettysburg firemen conducted a meeting and fought a fire simultaneously Wednesday evening.

President Richard M. Cole had called the regular fire department meeting at the engine house to order and the roll call of members was being conducted when a telephone call arrived that there was a chimney fire at the home of Ralph Miller, near Knoxlyn.

Younger firemen were dismissed by the president to fight the fire while older firemen were retained to continue the meeting. Firemen leaving assumed the siren would be sounded. The telephone operator, knowing firemen were present, assumed it was unnecessary to sound an alarm, and so the call was unaccompanied by the usual public notification via the siren atop the engine house.

Two Banquets Listed

Francis Smith reported, at the meeting, that the annual Veterans Firemen's banquet will be held January 19. The annual Ladies' Night banquet will be held February 19. A committee comprising Harold Culp, Robert Neary, Alvin Bupp, Harold Settle, John Leedy, Richard Schultz, Harold Small, and Harold HockenSmith in charge.

Fire Chief Donald McSherry and Assistant Donald Staub and Frank Linn reported there are several prospective purchasers for the 50-watt radio transmitter which has been replaced by a 250-watt station at the engine house but that final sale arrangements have not been completed.

Robert Shriver S. Charles Smith and Richard Knox, the auditing committee, presented its annual report showing the fire department in good shape financially. The Benton Gilbert, 75-year-old member of the Gettysburg Fire Company, attended Wednesday evening's meeting of the company on the 50th anniversary of his joining the local fire fighting group. Mr. Gilbert retired from the list of active firemen several years ago but attends the monthly meetings of the company occasionally.

amount in the apparatus fund at present is $6,170.50, according to the report. The department is seeking to build up the apparatus fund over the next several years in order to be able to purchase a new fire engine, to replace one of the older ones, without having to seek special donations, or without going into debt.

The relief fund now has a balance of $18,040.67, according to the report.

Money in the relief fund is received from the state which obtains it from a tax on out-of-state fire insurance sold in Pennsylvania. (Continued On Page 4)

1,099 BIRTHS IN 1955 SET MARK FOR THIS AREA

With 1,099 births in the Gettysburg district during 1955, a new all-time record was set for the area embracing Gettysburg and Cumberland, Strabon, Freedom and Highland Twps.

In 1954, according to the records of the registrar of vital statistics, there were 1,016 births, a record at that time.

The records show 572 males and 527 female babies. More men died than women, 148 males to 112 females. The 260 deaths in 1955 compare to 223 in 1954.

Most of the births and most of the deaths in the district occurred in Gettysburg. All 572 of the male babies were born in Gettysburg. Of the 527 females, three were born in Strabon Twp. and one in Freedom Twp.

Of the births, 123 male and 95 female occurred in the borough. There were 20 male and 12 female deaths in Cumberland Twp., five male and five female deaths in Strabon Twp. one male death in Freedom, and neither births nor deaths in Highland.

Eighteen births and 18 deaths represent the 18 infants who were stillborn. Nine of the stillbirths were female and nine males.

The records show December 1954 set a record for the number of births in any one month locally. 107 were born in that month. In November 1955 there were 102.

County Tax Rate To Stay At 10 Mills This Year Despite Jump Of $16,000 In Estimated Costs

BOY SCOUTS TO SEEK FULL-TIME FIELD LEADER

The Black Walnut Boy Scout district, increased in size by the addition of the Littlestown troops, will seek sufficient funds during the annual finance drive in February to have a full-time field executive, according to a report made Wednesday evening at a meeting of the executive committee of the district at the engine house, E. Middle St.

Dean W. E. Tilberg, reporting for Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, chairman of the finance committee, said plans are well underway for the annual financial drive during Boy Scout Week in February. It is hoped sufficient funds can be secured to support a full time executive. At the present time the Black Walnut district shares executive Charles Bright with Conewago district and the York-Adams council.

John C. W. Riddle, chairman of the district committee said: "We feel that the district is now large enough to support, and would obtain, obviously, better scouting, with a full-time man. We hope to raise more than $2,500 in the finance drive, which added to the $2,500 given by Gettysburg through the Community Chest, should do it. In a sense the finance campaign will be an election. Those who donate will be voting for a full-time executive for the district. If the donations are sufficient, the plan can be carried out."

Establish New Units

Roy Hammond, reporting for Clark Smith, chairman of the extension committee, said the committee plans to establish several new units prior to the February 1 meeting of the district committee in the council rooms at the engine house.

Dr. Frank N. Hewetson, advancement chairman, reported his committee is planning to meet with various troops in connection with advancement training.

Dr. William O. Duck, leadership training chairman, urged attendance at the annual "University Of Scouting" training program for scouts and leaders to be held at New Oxford High School, February 21 and 28 and March 6, 13, 20 and 27.

Plan Future Activities

Col. Donald Williams, chairman of camping and activities, announced plans for a number of activities to be held during the next several months. A complete schedule of the events will be published later.

Dr. Frederick Tilberg, chairman of the health and safety committee, said his group will assist in making camp inspections, will arrange for physical examinations and promote a program for emergency service.

W. Jack Watson, York-Adams area chief scout executive, reported the York-Adams area now has 5,604 scouts in 218 units led by 2,048 volunteer adults, the largest membership in the area's history.

Scout troops from the area raised $328 to help equip an Eskimo Boy Scout troop by donations made at Christmas parties throughout the area. Watson added that in sending the check to the Scouts on the Bering Sea the area challenged the Eskimos to learn English through the Scout Handbook. Watson urged attendance at the annual council dinner meeting at the Hotel Yorktown, January 24.

C. Y. Twibor, of the regional scout staff, Philadelphia, presented a film on the Senior Scout program.

LEREW HEADS BIGLER CLUB

William Lerew was elected president of the Biglerville Business Club at a dinner meeting in Ditzler's Restaurant, Biglerville, Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock. Other officers elected were: A. L. Leinart, vice president; Harold L. Smallwood, secretary; and John S. Klinefelter, treasurer.

A financial report on the Christmas parade sponsored by the club showed that donations from local residents and business firms nearly covered the $1,000 expenditure which included the cost of Christmas lighting, advertising and prize money for entries in the parade and the best-decorated home contest.

Paul F. Osborn, out-going president, extended his thanks to all those who served on committees for the Christmas parade and to their generous donations.

The tax rate for Adams County will continue for another year at seven mills for county purposes and three mills for the institution district, the county commissioners decided Wednesday.

Decision on the tax rate came with the budget still in a very tentative state and with knowledge that some budgetary items will increase during the year. But the commissioners also expect increased revenue from new construction throughout the county completed during the last 12 months and some expected to be completed by the end of the assessment period. Last year taxes were estimated to bring in $148,000 for county purposes. This year it is expected that the same millage will bring in about $160,000.

A surplus from last year helped the commissioners in their decision to retain the same millage rate for another year. The county ended the year with a balance of $44,448.39.

Budget Up $16,000

While most allocations of funds remain "about the same as last year," one that is scheduled to increase is the cost of elections. The commissioners have set aside in their tentative budget $17,500 for elections. Actual cost last year was $15,343.60. But with a presidential election coming on and with the county population increasing, this year's election costs are expected to be higher.

Total expenditures listed in the tentative budget for county purposes are $264,236 as compared to $248,666.58 spent last year. Income is expected to be $253,077.57 this year, not including the balance. As a result the county is expected to spend a little more than it takes in during the year, but will be able to show enough balance at the end of the year to carry on operations until new tax money arrives.

Among allocations tentatively set up are $15,685 for general government; $1,000 for solicitor; $65,016 operation of court house; $17,540 elections; $12,000 tax assessment; $2,250 sealer of weights and measures; $7,190 county treasurer; $3,300 auditors; $3,225 recorder of deeds; $9,900, sheriff.

Other Allocations

Actual cost of operations by the sheriff last year was $8,857.49, but the larger figure is budgeted because there is no way of telling in advance how many prisoners will be in jail during the year. The more prisoners to be fed and housed, the higher the total cost.

Other allocations, coroner, $1,665; prothonotary, $4,385; clerk of courts, $7,525; district attorney, $6,350; law library, $950; courts, $15,205; justices of the peace, $2,500; constables, $1,000; probation and parole, $8,160; maintenance of juveniles in institutions, $15,000; maintenance of persons in state prisons and other institutions, $43,000.

The county received notice Wednesday that the cost of maintaining prisoners in the Allegheny County workhouse increased from $1.98 day to $2.01 per day as of January 1. In the last six months the county spent $2,973.96 for 12 counties (Continued On Page 2)

CLEAR $175 AT BENEFIT PARTY

More than $175 was cleared by the Woman's Club of Gettysburg Wednesday afternoon at a card party held at the Moose Home, York St., attended by 104 members and guests. Part of the proceeds will be used to complete payment on a whirlpool bath donated to the Warner Hospital by the club in November. The remainder of the money will be used for charitable purposes.

Three floral arrangements were donated by the Wayside Flower Shop, Murray's Greenhouse and Musselman's as door prizes. They were won by Mrs. A. S. Bagley, Guernsey, and Mrs. James A. Martin and Mrs. Winifred Terriel, Gettysburg. During the afternoon coffee and homemade cake were served. Cakes were awarded to Mrs. Jacob Britcher, Mrs. Joseph S. Heiney, Mrs. M. C. Jones and Mrs. Edgar A. Miller.

The committee included the following: Mrs. Herbert Bly, Mrs. Mark A. Eckert, Mrs. Joseph S. Heiney, Mrs. Kenneth P. Hull, Mrs. Stanley W. Hull, Mrs. J. Kermit Herter, Mrs. Lloyd C. Keefeauver, Mrs. Guile W. Leferer, Mrs. Sterling Musselman, Mrs. John Payne, Mrs. Henry M. Scharf, Mrs. J. Donald Swope, Mrs. Charles H. Smith, Mrs. Charles S. Smith, Mrs. Raymond F. Topper, Mrs. Robert A. Wills, Mrs. John A. MacPhail, Mrs. Robert E. Berkeheimer and Mrs. Wilmer E. Bream.

CHIMNEY FIRE

The Cashtown Fire Company was called about 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening to the home of John Sharrah at the east end of Cashtown where a chimney was afire. There was no damage and the firemen's services were not required.

Two Women Injured When Cars Collide

Mrs. Ernest Brown, 65, East Aurora, N. Y., was admitted as a patient at the Warner Hospital this morning following an auto accident about two miles south of here on the Emmitsburg Rd. She was suffering from contusions of the chest, possible fractured ribs and a cerebral concussion.

Mrs. Eleanor Boylan, 57, Meadville, Pa., injured in the same crash, suffered a fracture of the upper jaw and lacerations of the upper lip.

State police from Gettysburg investigated the accident in which the two women were injured at about 10:30 o'clock. They said Ernest Brown, 71, was driving south and was in the act of passing another car when the front of his machine struck a car being driven north by Richard Earl Boylan, 25, Meadville R. 2. Damage to the Brown car was placed at $550 while the Boylan car was damaged to the extent of about $400.

Two Children Will Share In Estate

Eva A. Kuhn and John H. Weaver, of Gettysburg R. 5, have been named executors of the will of Alverta A. Weaver, of New Oxford, who died December 29. The two children will share the estate which consists of goods and credits in excess of $1,000, and real estate worth more than $5,000.

The real estate consists of two properties in New Oxford, late residence at 12 N. Peters St., and a two and one-half-story, six-room, frame dwelling house located on the east side of Hanover St., New Oxford.

Collegians Will Present "Mutiny"

"The Caine Mutiny Court Martial," Herman Wouk's play, adapted from his Pulitzer-prize winning novel, will be presented tonight and Friday evening by the Owl and Nightingale Players in Brua Hall at 8:30 o'clock. The leads will be played by Jerry Herz, Bronx, N. Y.; Wayne Strelein, Johnston and Roy Miller, Sharon. The production is under the direction of Dr. Richard A. Arms.

The public is invited. Tickets may be obtained at the door each night of the performance or by calling Jim Krum at 481-W.

Two Trucks Crash At Noon At X-Keys

A York truck driver suffered chest and head injuries not believed to be serious when two trucks collided this morning at 11:30 o'clock at the Cross Keys intersection east of New Oxford on the Lincoln Highway.

State Police from Gettysburg investigated and placed damage at $800.

Gettle did not require immediate medical attention but said he would go to his family physician later for a checkup.

Bring Two Suits Against Yarmark

Assumpsit actions were instituted today in the probate court of the county against National Ceramic Co., Aspers, and Ronald W. Yarmark, Aspers.

Harry Levine, New York City, is seeking $122,333 which he claims the National Ceramic Co. owes him as commissions on $32,992.30 worth of sales he allegedly made for them as factory representative.

In another assumpsit action Levine and Murray N. Brickner, operating as Brickner and Levine, a New York City corporation, are claiming $2,354.63 plus costs of protesting notes, which they allege is due them from Ronald W. Yarmark, trading as Yarmark Tile Co., Aspers. Brickner and Levine claim they sold Yarmark $2,354.63 worth of tile in 1953, took notes for the amount and the notes have not been paid.

Attorney Eugene R. Hartman represents both Levine and Brickner and Levine in the cases.

HAMPTON HAS HAMPTON HAS RURITAN CLUB

Residents of the Hampton area at a meeting at the Firemen's Club in Hampton, Wednesday evening, received their charter as a local chapter of Ruritan National from Charles E. Milhines, vice president of the Hunterstown Ruritan Club. In addition to the 24 charter members of the Hunterstown Club, representatives of the Hampton Club, Shady Grove and State Line clubs of Pennsylvania and the Keedysville, Md., club were in attendance.

The following were installed as officers of the new club by William Wells, Maryland district governor: Alonzo Hoffman Jr., president; Eugene Lemmon, vice president; Ralph Uffelman, secretary; John Miller, treasurer; Fred Leas, William Moul and Glenn Jacobs, directors.

A chicken dinner was served prior to the meeting by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hampton Fire Company.

This new organization was sponsored by the Hunterstown club. The meeting was conducted by Rome F. Schwagel, past Maryland district governor. The Hampton club is the fourth Ruritan Club to be formed in this area of Pennsylvania within the last few months. Ruritan is a national rural civic organization with a program directed towards bringing rural residents into closer fellowship through co-operative effort in solving local problems.

ESSO EDUCATION

continue the educational assistance programs of the participating companies, was announced October 4, 1955. Besides Jersey Standard, these companies are: Esso Standard Oil Company, Esso Shipping Company, Esso Research and Engineering Company, Esso Export Corporation, and Interstate Oil Pipe Line Company. The Foundation's offices are at 49 W. 49th St., New York 20, New York.

An Administrative Committee, staffed by officials of the participating companies developed the details of the new program which has now been approved by the Trustees of the Foundation. In dealing with such questions as recipients, amounts, and types of grants, the Committee had the benefit of the advice of experienced educators.

At the time establishment of the Esso Education Foundation was announced in October, it was disclosed that the participating companies had pledged $1,500,000 in contributions for 1955. The grants made today for the current academic year utilized slightly more than two-thirds of this sum. The Foundation's intention is to hold the remainder of the funds as a reserve to help even out its giving in future years.

Other Pennsylvania schools on the list included Dickinson, Lafayette, Bucknell, Drexel, Swarthmore, Temple and Villanova.

tians who were in the warehouse during that period.

$8,000 For Civil Defense
Other allocated expenses include: superintendent of schools, $5,140; military affairs, $6,630; and donations to hospital, library, and organizations, etc., $13,400. A total of $8,000 was allocated for Civil Defense.

In the listing the amounts do not represent salaries alone for offices listed, but the entire cost to the county of the various offices' operation.

The institution district budget had not been completely checked through but it was estimated that the cost will run about $70,000, as it did last year, including about $27,000 for Child Welfare.

Local Property Is Sold For $3,200

The following property transfers have been registered in the office of the register and recorder:

Adele Ross and Mary Edna Wentz, of Gettysburg, sold to Ruth Virginia Millard, of Gettysburg, for $3,200 a tract of land in Gettysburg surrounded by lands, nor or formerly, belonging to Elmer Dillman, Bernard W. Redding, Ralph Blocher, and others.

J. Forrest and Selba A. Kanagy, of Butler Twp., sold to H. Claude and Marcella A. Stoner, of Arendtsville, for $7,500, land in Butler Twp., containing about 104 perches.

Lydia W. and Floyd C. Lepperd, of Aspers R. 1, conveyed to Floyd C. and Lydia W. Lepperd, Aspers R. 1, four tracts of land in Tyrone, Menallen and Huntingdon Twp.s; the first, lying partly in Menallen and partly in Tyrone Twp., containing 118 acres, the second situated in Tyrone Twp., having 93 acres, the third, located in Huntingdon and Tyrone Twp., containing 79 acres, and the fourth lying in Tyrone Twp., containing about 92 acres.

WILL ENTER IKE IN ILLINOIS' APRIL PRIMARY

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's refusal to give assent or dissent to the entry of his name in the Illinois preferential primary left Republicans as uncertain today as before about his second-term intentions.

There were some new predictions that he will seek re-election, but no one claimed to see in the White House statement any clearer indication than Eisenhower gave a news conference Sunday at Key West, Fla.

He said then his mind is not so fixed that it cannot be changed. The clear implication was that he has made a tentative decision one way or the other, but he was careful not to say what it was.

His doctors have said it will be mid-February before they can say whether his recovery from a Sept. 24 heart attack is complete enough for him to run.

No Statement
When Gov. William G. Stratton announced at Springfield, Ill., yesterday that Eisenhower's name will be entered in the Illinois preferential primary voting April 10, the White House said there would be no statement "signifying either assent or dissent."

The statement was issued by Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, who said he had Eisenhower's approval. Hagerty stressed that Eisenhower did not know in advance of Stratton's plans. Stratton said, too, he had not consulted Eisenhower. He added: "This is my way of saying, Mr. President, we hope you run again." The state's preference primary is advisory only—no binding on delegates.

Shortly thereafter, it was announced that Eisenhower's name will be entered in the Florida preference primary May 29. State GOP Chairman G. Harold Alexander said at Fort Myers, "There definitely will be a slate for Eisenhower and it will win by an overwhelming majority."

File In Other States
A candidate's consent is not required for entry in the preference primaries in Florida or Illinois. Nor is it required in New Hampshire or Pennsylvania, where announcement was made earlier that his supporters will file his name in those states' primaries.

Several Republicans jumped on Sen. Kerr (D-Okla.), meanwhile, for suggesting in a news letter to constituents that Republicans "plan to bring" Eisenhower to the GOP nominating convention, "even if he has to stay in Letterman General Hospital, which reportedly is preparing a suite for him."

A spokesman for the Letterman General Hospital in San Francisco said no suite has ever been designated for Eisenhower. The spokesman said the Army decided recently to make some improvements on the hospital, built in 1898, and that one is a suite for dignitaries.

"TALL TALES"

At one time or another we . . . have all been guilty of . . . a thing that's known quite commonly . . . as giving truth a shove . . . exaggeration, some folks say . . . or putting on the dog . . . yes, we are prone to use this form . . . of crafty dialogue . . . could be on a certain prowess . . . or an object we have bought . . . or a more familiar subject . . . is how many fish we caught . . . I've heard many variations . . . and I've added some of mine . . . to the shady list of discourses . . . that gives fact a tinted shine . . . overstatements and yet somehow . . . an active part of life . . . when said in fun they tend to help . . . alleviate our strife . . . so it is and always will be . . . as each newborn day unveils . . . we are sure to be a part of . . . what we often call "tall tales."

IKE TO SEND BUDGET PLAN TO CONGRESS

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower plans to send to Congress Monday a balanced budget, but one that contemplates higher spending, and to indicate that outlays are likely to keep climbing in the next several years.

The actual budget totals are closely guarded until disclosed to Congress.

But on the basis of Eisenhower's State of the Union message and other official pronouncements it seems certain the budget will forecast: (1) spending of between 65½ and 66 billion dollars in the next fiscal year; (2) income of at least that much; and (3) requests for appropriations well in excess of projected spending.

To Revise Estimates
At the same time, Eisenhower probably will revise his estimates for the current fiscal year, ending next June 30, to predict a balanced budget with spending at about 64½ billion dollars. That would be some three quarters of a billion dollars higher than previously forecast.

In his State of the Union message Jan. 5, Eisenhower said his budget would forecast a balanced budget in fiscal 1956 and 1957.

If a balanced budget is achieved this fiscal year, it will be the first on which work is going ahead. Maj. Gen. Paul I. Robinson, hospital commandant, had said Dec. 25 a suite was being prepared at the hospital and that it would be ready if the President should attend the GOP convention next August and need a place to rest.

BRITAIN SENDS "FIRE BRIGADE" TO CYPRUS ISLE

LONDON (AP)—Britain began speeding some 2,000 paratroops toward Cyprus today as a show of strength in the tense Middle East.

Dispatch of the airborne "fire brigade" to Britain's Middle East headquarters on Cyprus came amid reports the government was considering slowing down troop evacuations from the Suez Canal zone because of the restless situation in the area.

Giant transport planes began ferrying the special combat group eastward through heavy rain clouds to reinforce Britain's estimated garrison on Cyprus of 100,000 men, many of whom are tied down by disorders arising out of demands for union of the island with Greece.

Uniforms Camouflaged
The giant airlift is due to be completed by tomorrow night.

Dressed in camouflaged uniforms, the paratroops' 42-year-old commander, Brig. A. M. H. Butler, took off in the lead plane.

"We are going to be ready for anything," he told newsmen.

The airborne troops' main mission is to serve as a mobile force that can be rushed to any trouble spot in the Middle East where British lives and property are threatened. Prime Minister Eden's move was said to have reassured many Conservatives who were openly critical of Britain's departure from the canal zone.

May Slow Evacuation
The possibility Britain may slow down its Suez Canal evacuation came barely a month before the previously expected completion of the project.

More than 66 per cent of the 80,000-man garrison already has moved out under terms of the British-Egyptian Suez agreement and at the present rate it was anticipated the whole force would be out by the end of next month, 3½ months ahead of schedule.

The pact provides, however, that only 75 per cent of the original force must be out by Feb. 19 and the other 20,000 can stay until June 19. Informants said that in view of the troubled situation, the British may revert to the original schedule.

since 1951.

Spending Grows
The budget is being balanced, even while spending is going up, because the expanding economy is enriching the government's income faster than spending is growing.

Aside from the balanced budget forecast, the most significant items in the forthcoming budget message, as indicated in previous announcements, are:

It Was Merely A "Pointless" Gift

JACKSON, Tenn. (AP) — Note to Dominic A. Tata of Niagara Falls, N.Y.: That gift you left in Jackson yesterday turned out to be pointless.

As service station attendant K.C. Hankins tells it:

Tata drove his sputtering car into Hankins' service station, asked for a fountain pen, asked Hankins' name and then signed over the title of the car to him. Tata asked and got a lift to the bus station for himself, his wife and their luggage.

Said Hankins later as he polished his car:

"I put a new set of points in the distributor and now it runs like a sewing machine."

National Official To Be Scout Speaker

Waldo Shaver, finance director of the national Boy Scout organization, will be the speaker at the annual meeting of the York-Adams Area Boy Scout Council in the Hotel Yorktowne, York, January 24. Following a dinner at 6:30 p.m., a Silver Beaver, the highest award the council can bestow, will be presented by Horace G. Ports, council commissioner, to three adult volunteer leaders.

Statuettes for service to boys will go to eight men. These annual awards will be presented by William Holley, council vice president. C. Fred Gibbs, vice chairman of the White Rose District of the council, will be the toastmaster, and the Rev. Thomas McGough, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic Church, York, will deliver the invocation. Opening and closing ceremonies will carry out the theme, "Onward for God and My Country."

Mrs. Marie Donnelly Dies On Wednesday

Mrs. Marie Wintrod Donnelly, 44, who resided in Millersburg, Pa., for the past 19 years and formerly of Littlestown, died Wednesday at 11 a.m. in the Mont Alto Hospital. She was the widow of Roland Donnelly and a daughter of the late William P. and Ellen (Slinghoff) Wintrod.

Surviving are two brothers and three sisters: LeRoy M. Wintrod, Littlestown; Mrs. Charles Smith, Westminster; Mrs. Lawrence Swepe, Lewistown; Mrs. Lawrence Lebo, Millersburg; and Homer S. Wintrod, Hanover.

Friends may call at the Riegler Funeral Home, 512 Market St., Millersburg, Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock. Funeral services Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Little's Funeral Home, Littlestown. The Rev. Porter W. Seiwel, pastor of Redeemer's Evangelical and Reformed Church, Littlestown, will officiate. Interment in Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Littlestown.

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Now this is what you call ambulance service. Mrs. Anna Reineke, 74, was hit by a taxi as she crossed a street yesterday. Deputies said she was in a hospital for treatment of a broken leg less than three minutes after she was struck. An ambulance returning to the hospital was running behind the taxi.

NEW YORK (AP)—An innovation went into effect last night on Arthur Godfrey's television show—the program was put on without a studio audience. A spokesman for Godfrey said, "We just tried something new," adding that the experiment would be continued "for a couple of weeks." No reason was given.

TWENTY YEARS AGO

New County Government Groups
Organized Monday: Adams County's new official family was installed Monday. Promptly at noon the reins of the various offices were turned over by out-going officials to their successors.

The county commissioners — S. L. Baltzley, Mervin H. Benner and Edgar C. McDannell — went into session at 12:05 o'clock and within 20 minutes all appointments had been made and salaries fixed.

The board elected Baltzley president because in the last general election he received the highest number of votes. Benner was elected secretary. They were nominated by McDannell, minority member of the board.

Immediately thereafter the commissioners made the following appointments:

Winfield G. Horner, Cumberland township, clerk; George Naugle, Hamilton township, sealer of weights and measures; Dr. Roy G. Gifford, Gettysburg, jail physician; J. Donald Swope Esq., Gettysburg solicitor; John Bowers, North Stratton street, janitor.

Poor Directors Elect M. I. Rice; Mervin I. Rice, of Bendersville, was elected president of the Adams County directors of the poor at a reorganization meeting at the county home Tuesday morning.

He succeeds Abner S. Mills of Gettysburg, who declined to seek another term as president. Members of the county home staff and board employees were re-elected including Clarence I. Snyder, secretary; Edgar K. Markley Esq., solicitor; Calvin R. Smith, steward and Dr. C. G. Crist, physician. W. M. Hartman, Menallen Township, is the new democratic minority member of the board.

Biglerville Council Re-Elects Deardorff: John Deardorff was re-elected president of the Biglerville borough council at its re-organization meeting held Tuesday evening. Other officers re-elected were William Peters, treasurer, and Earl Carey, secretary.

Other members of the council are G. W. Koser, C. E. Miller, Hoke Slaybaugh, Charles Raffensperger, Raymond Carbaugh and Joseph Boyer.

Reindollar Heads Fairfield Council: The Fairfield borough council re-organized at its regular meeting Tuesday evening electing Robert S. Reindollar president. Burgess Frank M. Moore presided and swore in the members.

D. P. Polley was named vice president and A. M. Moore treasurer. E. A. Seabrook, a non-member was selected secretary.

J. B. Waddle is a new member of the council replacing John E. Brown. Other members of the council are R. M. Sommers, Howard Weikert and J. M. Landis.

Commissioners Order Jury Box For Court Room: The Adams County commissioners employed J. Francis Stallsmith, Carlisle street, a carpenter, to construct a jury box and two counsel tables for the court room at their weekly meeting Tuesday.

The improvements were suggested by Judge W. C. Shely. The jury box will be constructed on two platforms, the first of which will be six inches above the floor and the second, six inches above the first.

A railing in front of the box will correspond with the railing separating the bar from the main body of the court room.

Previously the jurors sat on 12 chairs on the floor and those veniremen in the back row often had difficulty seeing and hearing.

Today's Talk

CHANCE MEETING

Every one of us owes to himself many a gain because of some chance meeting. Perhaps a new idea born or an error brought to light that might have turned seriously against us. Many a chance meeting I have had with a person has stirred me to new enterprises and courses of action.

It was a chance meeting with a friend that started my interest in the writings of Lafcadio Hearn, and that has resulted in my collecting his writings in their first editions as well as manuscripts and letters. For over thirty years this joyful hobby has been alive.

Scores of books in my library are there because someone — met by chance — intrigued me with an author I perhaps would never have known or enjoyed. Lovers of books are far from being a "closed corporation." They want everyone to love what they have discovered to be a gain to mind or spirit.

Many of the greatest blessings we have may be traced to a chance meeting that has borne for us all a glorious experience. So many of these blessings have come from chance meetings while traveling. Several life-long friends I met while traveling to Hawaii. Two of my very best friends I first met while a Federal grand juror.

To chance meetings we owe so much. They add to our capital store of knowledge and act as a groom to our spirit. Thus it is that the opportunity is given to us all to improve our lot and loan out ourselves to others, resulting in a perennial interest of happiness.

Every chance meeting should have something to it of personal gain whereas others may be fraught with significance. What a multitude of happy homes there are because of a chance meeting to which Cupid furnished the final touches!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Happy Eyes"

Just Folks

THE BRIGHTER SIDE
Someone committed a murder last night.

But hundreds of thousands were kind.

For the wrong that is done is forever in sight;

To the good we are fearfully blind.

Someone deserted his children today.

But millions of fathers are true.

The bad deeds are not such a fearful array

Compared to the good that men do.

Someone stole from his brother last night.

But millions of honest men live.

Someone was killed in a murderous fight.

But thousands were glad to forgive

Their brothers the wrongs that were fancied or real.

The crimes that we hear of each day.

Compared to the good deeds that we could reveal.

Make not such a fearful array.

I would answer the men who stand up and declare

That the world is much given to vice,

That the sum of man's crimes every day, everywhere,

Can't compare with man's sweet sacrifice.

That for every black soul there are thousands pure white.

The sum of the sinners is few.

And I know in my heart that the world is all right

When I think of the good that men do.

130 TEEN-AGERS COMPETE IN 4-H BABY BEEF SHOW

By RICHARD L. GRAVES

HARRISBURG (AP) — The grand prize of the Pennsylvania Farm Show—the 4-H club baby beef championship—was at stake for 130 teen-agers parading their pets for the scrutiny of judges.

The animals—coal Black Angus, Red Herefords and shorthorns—totaled well over 130,000 pounds on the hoof. They brushed and curled coats gleamed under the high arc lights of the Farm Show Building's mammoth arenas as judging began.

The grand championship means a cash return of more than $1,000 for the young winner. The 1955 winner brought $1.15 a pound at the annual post-judging auction—a total of $1,638.

Restaurants Buy Winners
The three top winners, grand and reserve champion and runnerup, are bought by restaurants and packing houses as part of their program of boosting the 4-H youth activities.

Last year's championship exhibitor, Thomas Daugherty, of Kirkwood, Lancaster County, is not entered in the 1956 event, but 25 of his Lancaster County 4-H club colleagues have entries in the competition. The baby beef championship has been won the past few years by Lancaster County youngsters who annually enter the largest number of animals.

In other 4-H club activities judging opened in the youngsters' lamb competition. As in the beef awards, the grand championship means cash in the pocket for the youthful winner.

Lambs Entered
In 1955 championship pen of southdowns, owned by Walter Augsberger, of Reinhold R. 1, Lancaster County, was sold at auction for $1.35 a pound—a total of $349 for the pen.

Both beef and lamb auctions are held Friday afternoon. Meanwhile, defending titlists in the farm show's two featured athletic events warmed up for evening competition.

John Fulton, Carlisle R. D., Cumberland County, was after his eighth state horsehoe pitching title. The brother team of Jacob and Charles Sult, Millville R. 2, Columbia County, sought their third state championship in the annual log sawing contest.

Other Contests Listed
Fulton won his crown in 1936, 1938, 1940, 1947, 1949, 1951 and 1954. The Sults won in 1952 and 1954. Farm show rules prohibit a winner from returning to competition in two consecutive years.

Other events tonight include the annual FFA tractor driving contest and a parade of show livestock in the large arena.

Last night, teams belonging to Ray Kessler, Millville, won both the lightweight and heavyweight divisions in the annual state horse lightweight team also won the 1955 title.

Has Winning Team
Kessler's lightweight team hauled the specially-built truck weighted to 20 tons a distance of 15 feet 4 inches. His heavyweight team hauled 22.1 tons for 19 feet 3 inches. The Millville farmer's team won their way into the final round by pulling lighter weights the qualifying distance of 27 feet.

State Secretary of Agriculture William L. Henning told Pennsylvania dairymen last night that Pennsylvania could be proud of its 350 million dollar dairy industry.

"No other industry has achieved the efficiency that resulted from the combination of research, extension, education and co-operation," Henning declared.

He added that Pennsylvania's well-balanced dairy economy "is envied by other parts of the nation."

TEACHERS WILL VISIT SCHOOLS IN OTHER AREAS

Adams County's school teachers will visit other schools in February instead of having the regular second day of Institute.

County Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle said the visits will be made from February 13 through February 17.

No limitations were placed on the schools the teachers will visit, but Riegle in a letter to the supervising principals said, "We would strongly recommend that at least one teacher from a joint system visit each of the other joint systems."

Decision was made to allow the teachers to select the particular schools and classes they wish to attend for several reasons, Riegle said.

Because most teachers will want to attend classes in the same course they teach, it will be simpler for each teacher to make his own selection.

Because no school can function properly with a number of teachers visiting at the same time, it was felt that individual selection would divide the teachers more equally among a number of schools.

Arrangements for the visits will be made by the supervising principals in their own jointures. Each teacher is to be given a form which lists the grades and subject matters and schools he or she prefers to visit. Alternates are listed.

Conevago and Fairfield jointure teachers will make their visits February 13; Littlestown and North Adams jointures, February 14; Upper Adams, February 15; Lower Adams, Franklin Township and Conevago Township, February 17.

ALARM CALLS

By law the money can be used only for firemen's relief, to help firemen who may have been injured or incapacitated in the performance of their duties. Gettysburg firemen, with a high safety record, have made few demands on the relief fund over the last several years.

See Equipment Fund Boost
The report showed $500 still in the Kiddles Christmas Fund. For years the firemen annually held a Christmas party for the youngsters of the community, but the party was abandoned several years ago. The fund is being continued however against the possibility that the parties may be resumed.

With $13,188.51 in the general fund, the firemen were certain they will be able to add substantially to the equipment fund this year, provided the carnival in connection with the 93rd anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg is a success. The annual transfer of funds is made following the completion of the carnival "just to be on the safe side" in the event of an emergency requiring major outlay by the fire department.

Glenn Weishaar, general chairman for the 93rd battle anniversary observance, reported plans progressing for that annual event. Named to the duty roster for February were Charles Hankey, Clifford Harmon, Glenn Harner, Robert Hartman, Vernon Heflin and Robert Heyser.

Halogens is the term applied to fluorine, chlorine, bromine and iodine because of the great similarity of their sodium salts to ordinary sea salt.

Student Involved In Local Accident

Roger Edwards Fleming, Ardmore, Pa., and a member of the Gettysburg College Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity, was involved in an accident with Berl R. McGuire, Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Tuesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock near the end of the 400 block, Steinwehr Ave.

Fleming was driving from the curb into the line of oncoming traffic when the McGuire car struck the left front door of the Fleming car with his right front fender. Damage to Fleming's Ford coupe was estimated at $300 and to McGuire's Packard sedan, $350. Mrs. McGuire suffered a slight bump on her forehead. No arrests were made.

BULLET SWIM SQUAD SINKS LOYOLA 54-29

Jim Lentz's Gettysburg College swimmers got off to an auspicious start as they outclassed Loyola 54-29 at Baltimore, Wednesday.

The Bullets captured seven of the 10 events with Captain Chet McLaughlin winning two, the 220 and 440-yard freestyle events.

Other winners for the locals were Bob Gilchrist, 50 freestyle; Ken Newbould, 100 freestyle; Fred Hopkins, 200 breaststroke; 300 medley relay team of George Allison, Fred Hopkins, Ron Paul, and the 400 freestyle medley squad of Paul, Dick Tracy, Allison and Tom Oakes.

The Bullets will meet Lehigh University here Saturday.

The summaries:

50-Yard Freestyle — Won by Gilchrist, Gettysburg; second, Schildwacher, Loyola; third, Paul, Gettysburg. Time — 25.5.

100-Yard Freestyle — Won by Newbould, Gettysburg; second, Gilchrist, Gettysburg; third, Schildwacher, Loyola. Time — 61.3.

Many Important Schoolboy Basketball Games Will Be Played On Friday Evening

HARRISBURG (P)—Pennsylvania's schoolboy basketball teams head into crucial games Friday vying for early leads in the state's major conference races.

It will be Allentown at Bethlehem in a battle of unbeaten for the lead in the powerful East Penn loop of Dist. 11.

Allentown and Bethlehem, together with Allentown Central Catholic, are currently leading the league with 1-0 records. Bethlehem will be out to recapture the title it lost the Canaries in 1953. Allentown topped the East Penn in that year and every year since.

Allentown Central Catholic, beaten only in one exhibition game, meets Easton in its attempt to stay in the running.

At the other end of the state New Castle and Alliquippa, each unbeaten in league play, clash to decide the early leader of mighty Sect. III of the WPIAL.

Resumes Win Streak

New Castle, whose 12 game exhibition winning streak was halted by Chester, increased its lead in the circuit to 3-0 Tuesday by stomping Beaver Falls 85-35. Alliquippa, meanwhile, had a tougher time getting its second win against Sharon 55-45.

Chester will be seeking its third league win and its 11th without defeat this season against Cheltenham, winless in Sect. I of the Suburban Philadelphia League. Lower Merion, meanwhile, rated to give Chester a run for honors, lines up against Norristown.

In the central part of the state, the big independent game features Williamsport at Altoona. Altoona stunned Lewistown Tuesday 58-54 and will be out for win No. 9 in hopes of securing a spot in the PIAA playoffs.

Bloomsburg Leads Pack
Independents must win 62 per cent of their games to qualify for the district tournaments.

Unbeaten Bloomsburg, now alone at the top of the Susquehanna League, will be seeking distance from the rest of the pack against Milton. Bloomsburg gained sole possession of the perch when South Williamsport lost its first league game Tuesday to Selinsgrove.

In the Keystone League, Coal Twp., beaten only by Bloomsburg in an exhibition game, takes on Berwick in a game that could ice the first half championship for the Township, defending Dist. 4 champions.

The game is Coal's last of the first half in the five team circuit.

The South Penn of Dist. 3 shows undefeated Middletown, the favorite to replace Carlisle as titlist, out after its second win against Hanover. Carlisle, which beat Hanover in its first league outing, takes on Mechanicsburg.

Other Games

In other games, Lancaster travels to Reading in hopes of upsetting the league leading Knights and State College tries for its second Central State League win against Lock Haven.

Back in the WPIAL, Jeannette and Greensburg will be out to maintain their tie for Sect. II honors in games against Conestoga and Latrobe. Greensburg, the defending champ, was given no pre-season chance of repeating as champion but already has two league wins under its belt.

The big game in Dist. 9 features Clearfield at Punxsutawney, both undefeated in league play and both given a good chance to replace Kane as champion.

Other contests show Butler at Ford City in Sect. I of the WPIAL; Old Forge, undefeated in league play and rated the "team to beat" in the Lackawanna Conference, meeting West Scranton, one of the main contenders; Kingston, the favorite in the Wyoming Valley League, against Newport; Lewistown, defending Mountain League champ, at Huntingdon, and undefeated Westmont at Ebensburg.

McKeesport, defending state champion showing only a so-so record this year, gets a rest from WPIAL competition Friday.

Hockey Loop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Hershey Bears, with little hopes of making the American Hockey League playoffs, finally have defeated the Cleveland Barons on their home ice.

After taking three beatings from the Barons at Hershey, the Bears turned in a 6-2 victory in the league's only game last night with Gordie Wilson turning in the 3-goal hat trick.

Wilson scored all of his goals in the second period and Lorne Davis added a fourth to make a runaway of the game. Floyd Smith and Ed Panagabko tallied for Hershey in the first period.

Both of Cleveland's goals also came in the second, off the stick of Joe Lund.

Bullets Will Play In Chocolate Bowl

LEWISBURG, Pa. (P)—Bucknell University will play an eight-game 1956 football schedule including a game against Gettysburg in the annual Chocolate Bowl at Hershey Sept. 29.

The eight-game slate announced yesterday is the first of its kind for Bucknell since 1949 and features a game against Buffalo University for the first time since 1953. Miami, Fla., was dropped from this year's schedule.

The university said it plans to return to a nine-game card in 1957. The schedule:

Sept. 22, at Albright; Sept. 29, Gettysburg at Hershey; Oct. 6, Lehigh; Oct. 13, at Delaware; Oct. 20, Lafayette; Oct. 27, at Temple; Nov. 3, Buffalo; Nov. 10, at Colgate.

HOGAN, CROSBY IN GOLF TOURNEY

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (P)—Ben Hogan comes out of retirement tomorrow for charity, but his benevolence may not extend to other pros entered in the Bing Crosby Golf Tournament.

Blazing Ben, who retired last June after failing to win the National Open, turned in a nifty 65 in a practice round Wednesday at Cypress Point and remarked, "I was putting better than I have in two years."

Both he and his crooner partner in the pro-amateur meet had said before that practice round that they did not expect they would raise a winning sweat during the $15,000, 54-hole tourney.

Crosby said he convinced Hogan to leave his Texas home by pointing out his appearance would increase the gate. The singer said he returned to play after four years on the sidelines because Hogan "was mighty persuasive."

After that Crosby shot a creditable 65 and Hogan fired seven birdies and an eagle for his 65.

Crosby for 10 years has been picking up the tab for the tourney and donating receipts to charity. He is putting out a $2,500 first prize for best pro and a $1,500 first prize for the play-for-pay man in the winning pro-amateur team.

The Taneytown Alumni quintet laced New Midway 92-71 Wednesday evening on the Taneytown High School floor. Dougherty paced the winners with 31 points while Matthews connected for 26 for the winners.

Next Tuesday the Alumni will play at the York YMCA.

EAGLES SIGN PELLEGRINI

PHILADELPHIA (P)—The Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football League today announced the signing of Bob Pellegrini, University of Maryland center and the Birds' number one draft choice this year.

The Eagles now have signed all three top draft choices for 1956. Previously placed in the Philadelphia fold were Frank D'Agostino, Auburn tackle, and Don Schaefer, Notre Dame fullback. All three are All-America selections.

COLTS SIGN GREEN
BALTIMORE (P)—Paul (Sam) Green, former Penn State guard and linebacker, has been signed by the Baltimore Colts of the National Football League.

Green, a free agent, is now with the Army in Germany. His home is in Pottstown, Pa.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

NCAA SESSIONS COOLEST HELD IN MANY YEARS

LOS ANGELES (P)—The golden anniversary convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. must go down as one of the calmest, cooler sessions of an organization that has produced many a stormy meeting.

Today the delegates were heading home, and all that remained on the scene was the council, or policy-directing body, to appoint new members of the important Television, Executive and Tournament committees.

Little happened in the convention that was not anticipated. Here is a wrap-up of some of the main items of interest:

The NCAA voted to continue controlled football television in 1956. It probably will be in similar fashion to regional and national TV last fall but the plan itself will be mapped out by the 1956 TV Committee and approved by two thirds of the voting members via mail poll.

Small Game Tourney

The NCAA voted to inaugurate its own national so-called small college basketball championship tournament, over the protests of the already well-established National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics, which conducts its tournament at Kansas City. Best guess is that the new NCAA college division will eventually kill or swallow the NAIA.

Effective next year, the basketball season will start Oct. 15 instead of Nov. 1, and spring practice was abolished.

The convention tightened to some extent its recruiting rules, but another proposal to limit the number of visits by an athlete to a campus to one was withdrawn for further study.

Probing 25 Schools

The Infractions Committee reported that 25 schools are presently under investigation for 14 offenses in the area of recruiting. Neither the identity of the schools nor the alleged infractions was divulged. Frank N. Gardner of Drake, the chairman, said that in all, 77 cases were dealt with by the committee in 1955.

The continued probation of Miami of Florida until the next convention was ratified without debate. The school has been on the ban for several alleged violations, including a loan fund for students, athletes particularly.

The NCAA voted to ban its coaches and officials from functioning in high school all-star football and basketball events, effective Sept. 1, 1956.

BOXING GUILD WILL APPEAL TO SUPREME COURT

NEW YORK (P)—New York boxing managers were quitting the broken Boxing Guild of New York today, but the organization refused to dissolve in complete surrender.

The guild unanimously accepted the recommendation of its executive board last night to advise members who are licensees of the New York State Athletic Commission to resign from the guild "forthwith."

However, it also approved an announcement that the guild will remain intact and will proceed to the New York State Supreme Court to contest the validity of the commission's order, setting a Jan. 16 deadline for all members to resign or lose their licenses.

Some Will Remain
Of the 69 members of the guild, it was estimated that about 35 per cent are not licensed in New York. Presumably a nucleus of about 15 or 20 will remain to keep the franchise and guard the treasury, estimated at over $10,000. According to Murray Frank, the guild attorney, an unincorporated body, such as the guild, can exist legally with "seven or more members."

Among those who have resigned or said they would resign from guild affiliates are the managers of Rocky Marciano, Carmen Basilio, Nino Valdes, Jimmy Carter, and Joey Giambra. Gus D'Amato, manager of Floyd Patterson and acting New York Guild president, wouldn't say if he planned to resign. Bill Daly, a member of the New York Guild and manager of Vince Martinez, said he wouldn't resign. Daly isn't licensed in New York.

Some Are Indicted
The parent International Boxing Guild, two of its officers and the Cleveland affiliate, were indicted Tuesday by a federal grand jury in Cleveland on charges of boycotting and other violations of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act.

While the guild crumbled, various state athletic commissions, including that of Pennsylvania, gave out with their "Sunday punch."

Chairman Jim Crowley, commissioners Alfred Klein and Paul Sullivan and John Saunders, executive secretary, of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission met with Helfand yesterday to assure him of their "complete cooperation." Crowley said he would urge the National Boxing Association at its executive meeting at Chicago next weekend to back up New York.

Bullets Blow Big Lead And Bow To Bucknell 79 To 68; Freshmen Also Beaten 71-64

Collapsing in the second half after putting their best performance of the season in the first half, the Gettysburg College dribblers dropped a 79-68 decision to Bucknell at Lewisburg Wednesday evening.

The Bullets completely outclassed the Bisons with their brilliant display in the first half and had a lead of 19 points just before the half ended. At the intermission Coach Bob Davies' outfit appeared well on the way to victory with a 45-28 lead. The Bullets landed 18 of 32 attempts during the first 20 minutes.

It was a different story in the second half as Bucknell began to connect and the Bullets sagged with all-around ragged play.

The Bisons registered 17 points before Gettysburg could score early in the half. Jim Strizzi's set shot sending the Bisons ahead 55-53 at the midway point. Bucknell kept up its red hot pace and pulled steadily away.

Gettysburg's collegiate record dropped to 4-6 as the result of the setback while Bucknell upped its mark to 5-3.

Joe Bierly, Bullet center, suffered a laceration of the chin which required three stitches when he fell to the floor during a scramble early in the second half.

Fresh Ragged

The Bullet freshmen dropped their initial game after two victories in the preliminary 71-64. Coach Johnny Yovcin's tribe trailed throughout although the score was close most of the way. The yearlings appeared slow and somewhat sloppy although excelling in rebounding. Tim Collins, giant center, topped the scorers with 28 points and was credited

Guardsmen Win In Double Overtime

The Howitzer Co. basketball team chalked up their third successive victory Wednesday evening by defeating the Hess Antiques in a double overtime 80-77 on the armory floor.

Ted Bear led the winners with 26 tallies while Saunders and Phillips looped 23 and 22 for the losers.

SURVEYS BLEAK TRACES OF FIRST POLAR VOYAGE

By SAUL PETT

CAPE ROYDS, Ross Island, Antarctica (AP)—The base camp used by the first man to come close to the South Pole still stands here at the foot of Mt. Erebus, on a little hollowed-out shelf over the frozen ice of McMurdo Sound.

It is 47 years since England's Ernest Shackleton made his gallant attempt. Forced to turn back 85 miles short of his goal, he and his parties did much notable exploratory and scientific work in the antarctic.

Looking over his camp almost half a century later gives one the sensation of a macabre movie that stopped suddenly, with all action and life frozen in the last motion. There is the sensation too of being on a spot as dismal and bleak as a crater of the moon must be.

Still In Good Condition

The wooden hut, about 40 by 20 feet, has whitened over the years but is still in good condition. Cables criss-crossing over its peak anchor it against the violent antarctic winds. It stands on a slight rise overlooking a saucer-shaped area. Behind the hut Mt. Erebus rises in an overwhelming white pyramid all the way up to 13,000 feet—the only active volcano in the ant-

State Xmas Tree Industry Growing

HARRISBURG (AP)—Santa Claus note!

The Pennsylvania Christmas tree industry is growing splendidly.

Dr. William C. Bramble, head of the Penn State School of Forestry, told the Pennsylvania Christmas Tree Growers Assn. at the Pennsylvania Farm Show that the commonwealth accounted for one tenth of the nation's Christmas tree output last month.

Bramble said two million trees were harvested and marketed during the season in the commonwealth.

Six different types of experiments in improving Christmas trees are now under way, Bramble disclosed. Five of the 12 agricultural experiment stations in the northeastern United States are conducting Christmas tree research, he added.

Scattered around the hut are cans, bales and boxes. Some are half open, or chewed away by the skua gulls. They contain hams, soup, marrow, fat, corn kernels, concentrated fruits and other foodstuffs for man and beast. Those that are unopened are still edible.

Some are marked "British Antarctic Expedition 1908." Others were left by the second expedition in 1917. On that one Shackleton never reached his men here on McMurdo Sound. He took one group to the Wedell Sea, on the other side of the continent. Heavy ice trapped his ship, then carried it hundreds of miles off course, preventing the linkup.

It was on the first expedition that Shackleton jumped off from here for the pole, using Manchurian drag sledges along the 800-mile route.

BENDERSVILLE FIREMEN MADE 18 CALLS IN '55

Bendersville firemen responded to 18 alarms during 1955, according to the annual report of Fire Chief L. J. Orner.

Five of the calls were to assist other companies. Mt. Holly Springs firemen twice called Bendersville for aid. Biglerville fire company asked Bendersville's assistance twice and Aspers' asked help on one occasion. Following the custom of firemen to call upon neighboring companies when needed, Bendersville called out the Aspers firemen twice during the year to aid in fighting conflagrations.

The Bendersville firemen responded to eight calls in Menallen Twp., four in Tyfene Twp., one in Huntingdon Twp., one in Butler Twp., two in Dickinson Twp., Cumberland Co., one in Cook Twp., Cumberland County, and one in South Middleton Twp., Cumberland County.

Crate Factory Burned

They fought two grass fires, four woods and forest fires, one chimney fire, a dump fire, a truck tractor fire, a fire in a service station, three houses, with the firemen able to save two of the houses from de-

Liquor Sales Rise To $238,225,683

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Liquor Control Board has reported an increase of 7 1/2 million dollars in liquor sales in Pennsylvania during 1955 compared to the previous year.

Chairman Patrick E. Kerwin fixed the unaudited sales volume for 1955 at $238,225,683. The 1954 figure was $230,735,678. Both figures included the 10 per cent state tax. Almost one-half of the 3 per cent increase amounting to $7,490,006 represented sales during the December holiday period. The board fixed December, 1955, sales at $39,551,396, compared with $36,369,127 for December, 1954.

At the conclusion of a day and a half session Tuesday, the commission approved a schedule of interim merit increases for about 90 per cent of the agency's personnel.

The commission also announced full acceptance of the report and recommendations of the management consulting firm of Robert Heller and Associates, Cleveland.

Some of the larger fires fought by the Bendersville firemen during the year were Boyer's Crate Factory, the workshop and washhouse at Clifford Bucher's farm, James Howe's barn, the 500-acre mountain fire in Hunter's Run. Stanbaugh's truck tractor, Justin Horick's farm tractor, the Prickett estate house and the M. E. Knouse tenant house.

ALMOST 300 TO GET PAY BOOST OF $100 A YEAR

HARRISBURG (AP)—Almost 300 employees of the state Fish Commission are in line today for annual salary increases of $100.

The salary topic has been a controversial one since the 1953 Legislature approved a 50-cent boost in the annual fishing license fee to raise commission wages. A House committee last year made extended studies of the problem.

The commission named a three-man committee two months ago to study the pay situation.

Voigt explained that the boosts were granted to correct "some quite serious inequities" found in many of the professional jobs such as biologists and hydrological engineers.

The executive director added a job reclassification currently being made by the Leader administration may produce additional increases for commission employees.

for "sweeping" reorganizations of the agency. They will be put into effect "by stages as rapidly as feasible."

Executive Director William Voigt Jr. estimated the wage increase total $40,000 adding:

"We are hoping to get these increases in effect by Feb. 1 and they will be effective as soon as the proper wheels are turned administratively."

mission's pay scales "in a good many categories" as behind those of other state agencies for similar work and also below those of out-of-state agencies.

Plan 5-Day Week

In other action, the commission decided to institute "as quickly as practical" a five-day 40-hour work week for the entire field force except wardens. Field personnel presently work a 44-hour week.

Another policy decision involved the posting of nine stretches of trout water for fly fishing only, a rule which many sportsmen groups have been asking.

Stretches to be posted this year include Big Bushkill Creek, Monroe County; North Sandy Creek, Venango County; Hickory and Mud Runs, Carbon County; Dunbar Creek, Fayette County; Sedlock Creek, Lancaster County; Little Lehigh River, Lehigh County; Manatawny Creek, Berks County and Koser Lake, Somerset County.

The commission also rescinded previous policy that required five-day posting of trout waters which were stocked during the middle of the season.

Drafted a new general policy for handling concessions at fishing lakes under commission control.

Directed the staff to continue its search for suitable areas that can be bought or leased to improve public access to open fishing waters.

Ordered discontinued the practice of dumping in the Lake Erie shore areas millions of yellow perch eggs from the Pleasant Mount hatchery area.

Business Adds Up Biggest Profit Year In History

NEW YORK (AP)—Businessmen are busy today tallying up the records of their most profitable year. The first earnings reports indicate that 1955 set a profit pace which the new year will find hard to beat.

The stock market has been doing considerable second-guessing along this line, as traders assess the prospects of individual corporations to continue their growth rate of recent months, to maintain profit margins in the face of rising operating costs, and to declare dividends that would sweeten present yields.

But whether the future is clouded or fair, the hindsight provided by the earnings statements of business is cheerful indeed.

Striking Gains

The annual reports won't start coming in volume till later this month. But some corporations whose fiscal years have ended are reporting on their 12-month profits. Overwhelmingly they show striking gains.

Thirty-four industrial and trade companies have reported so far. Combined, their profits after taxes soar 46 per cent over the previous year. Only three of them showed smaller earnings in 1955 than in 1954, although in each year two companies operated at a loss.

The nation's railroads also made a notable comeback after their lean year in 1954. The Association of American Railroads estimates that the 126 class I roads will have a net income after taxes of 915 million dollars. This would be a 34 per cent gain over the previous year.

Fast Industrial Pace

The utilities have also profited from the fast industrial pace and the increased use of electrical home appliances. Fifty-seven of them have reported on their affairs in the 12 months ending Nov. 30. Only seven show declines in profits after taxes, and in most cases only slight drops.

Combined, the 56 report net earnings of $546,254,028, for an 8 per cent gain over the previous 12 months.

In the communications field, American Telephone & Telegraph officials estimate its earnings in 1955 will run around $13 a share. In 1954 the big phone company, with fewer shares outstanding, earned $11.42 a share. Its record per share profit was $15.72 set on still fewer shares in 1928.

74-Year-Old Tackles Dickens For $32,000

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Mabel Morris, a 74-year-old London-born widow who receives support from the Welfare Department, came through with answers to a complex question about Charles Dickens Tuesday night and won $32,000 on a television quiz show.

She will get a chance to double her money next week when she returns to CBS' The $64,000 Question, or she may elect to stop with $32,000. If she misses the next question she will get a Cadillac.

WILLIAMSPORT WANTS JUKE BOX TAX MADE VOID

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Pennsylvania Supreme Court today had under advisement a plea by a Williamsport attorney that the court nullify the central Pennsylvania city's tax on juke boxes.

The test case was argued before the high court Tuesday by Atty. Patrick H. Fierro, who started the legal ball rolling by purchasing a juke box himself and operating it. He lost his first trial of the issue in Lycoming County Court, then appealed to the state Supreme Court here.

Fierro maintained in his argument Tuesday that the Williamsport levy was written as a tax on admissions to amusement and therefore does not apply to juke boxes — coin-operated music machines.

"Paying Admission Tax" "It is inconceivable," he told the court, "that a man who walks into a restaurant and places a coin in a juke box is paying a tax on admission."

By the same token, he added, the operator of a juke box is not necessarily conducting a place of amusement.

Taking an opposing point of view was Charles Bidschpacher Jr., Williamsport city solicitor, who wrote the tax law.

"Part Of Money Quest" "The ordinance," he said, "is part of the eternal quest of municipalities for funds to keep their heads above water."

The tax ordinance, Bidschpacher said, was enacted on the basis of a 1947 state law permitting local governments to tax a variety of objects and services.

Justice Michael A. Musmanno said it appeared to him that the title of the ordinance in question would indicate the levy was on the admission of "a human being."

Need Amusement Tax The jurist asked Bidschpacher why he didn't write a tax law on amusements "instead of a tax on admissions."

"Because I met the issue squarely," the Williamsport city solicitor said, "and named juke boxes specifically in another part of the ordinance. You can't put everything in the title of a law."

Chief Justice Horace Stern, who said the court would take the matter under advisement, commented a human being is not of necessity admitted to a place of amusement by placing a coin in a juke box.

Freed Missionaries Are Returning Home

MANILA (AP)—Dr. and Mrs. Homer V. Bradshaw, a U.S. missionary couple released last month from five years imprisonment in Red China, left Wednesday for the United States on a military transport plane. The Pittsburgh, Pa., couple is due at Travis Air Force Base near San Francisco late Friday.

Both had suffered severe malnutrition while imprisoned. Bradshaw gained 12 pounds in his three-week stay at Clark Air Force Base hospital near here but said he still is "a little wobbly." Mrs. Bradshaw gained four pounds.

County Agent Tells Methods To Control Spiders, Protect Tractors, Sell Pigs At Profit

During the fall months, spiders often find their way into basements through cracks around the foundation and windows. Once in the house, they usually prefer a dark undisturbed corner in the basement.

Sweeping down the webs offers only temporary clean-up, if the spiders are not destroyed. An effective way to destroy spiders is by spraying the infested basement with 0.5 per cent lindane household type spray which can be purchased ready to use. Another spray for spiders can also be prepared by mixing 5 tablespoons of lindane 25 per cent wettable powder or 20 per cent lindane emulsion in one gallon of water. One spray application usually gives satisfactory control.

Protect Tractor In Winter

Check the tractor to make sure it is ready to weather the cold months ahead. Even though it is operated less in winter, a tractor can suffer more during cold months than from all the hours of operation. However, this added wear need not occur.

First, be sure to change the crankcase oil often in winter. For each gallon of fuel burned, more than a gallon of water is produced through the combustion process. During summer operation this water evaporates and passes out the exhaust. But in winter when the tractor is operated for short periods, much of this water condenses inside the engine, because the cylinder walls don't have enough time to heat properly. Also, the crankcase is cold and part of the water vapor flows by and condenses there with the other products of combustion to form acids, which have a corrosive action on moving parts of the engine.

With anti-freeze in the cooling system make sure the thermostats are working properly and allow the engine to warm up to the proper operating temperature of 165 to 180 degrees F. Check this with a thermometer placed in the radiator.

For prolonged operation of tractors in winter, check the oil in the transmission, differential, and final drives. A lighter oil is usually recommended. Check the operator's manual for the correct weight of oil to use, or how to dilute the oil already in the transmission.

If water is added to the battery be sure to operate the generator immediately for a short time to allow the new solution to become fully charged. Otherwise it may freeze and destroy the battery.

Lean Hogs Sell Best

Topping out or marketing hogs at 200 to 220 lbs. will tend to reduce total pork supply, and bring farmers top market price. During the last four years (1951-54) the average Chicago (November-December) price for 200-220 lb. market hogs was 65 per cent higher than the price for 240-270 weights.

Sale of lighter weight hogs should decrease total supply and bring higher prices to farmers.

Less lard would be produced by marketing lighter weight hogs. Currently, pork fat rendered into lard is worth approximately 50 per cent of top live hog price.

With hogs sold at lighter weights, the carcasses would weigh less. This in turn would mean fewer of the heavier cuts more of the lighter cuts. Consumer demand is stronger for lighter weight loins, hams and picnic than for heavy weight cuts. This should raise the average return per pound of pork sold.

More efficient use of feed is realized by marketing hogs under 225 lbs. as shown by tests conducted by USDA.

The farmer who holds his hogs past 200-220 lbs. runs the risk of selling on a falling market. The drop in price may more than offset returns on extra weight. Selling heavy hogs adds to the total supply

NEED MORE BEES IN THIS STATE

HARRISBURG (AP)—Pennsylvania is badly in need of more and larger beekeepers to meet the demand for honey and bees for pollination, according to W. W. Clarke Jr., extension apiarist of the Pennsylvania State University.

In a talk given before the Pennsylvania State Beekeepers' Association Farm Show meeting Wednesday, he claimed there is a market for all the honey produced, and that there is now a shortage of all flavors and colors. He said prices at the wholesale level have almost reached the record high price of honey after World War II.

"One of the biggest problems in the bee business in Pennsylvania is that the beekeeper is almost always under-equipped," Clarke continued. "He has too few bees, too few supers, a too-small honey house, too-small equipment in the honey house, and bee yards too far apart with too few bees in each yard."

He urged all beekeepers to increase the number of colonies, and said they could do it without much time or effort if they would become more efficient in management and which depresses the price for all hogs.

Old Lucifer, Famed Breeding Bull, Dies

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—Old Lucifer, who fathered 45,190 sons and daughters and is expected to sire some 3,000 more, died Tuesday. The Holstein bull, whose full name is Lauxmont Admiral Lucifer, was believed to be the oldest bull in artificial breeding service in the United States. He died at the advanced age of 17 years and 4 months, equal to 95 years in the human span of life.

Officials at the Southeastern Pennsylvania Artificial Breeding co-op said they have collected 3,000 ampules of frozen semen which will enable them to continue breeding animals by the dead bull for two or more years.

in better stocking of adequate equipment.

Although the honey crop in Pennsylvania increased last year to a total of 3,700,000 pounds, which is an average increase of five pounds per hive, Clark reported, "The melon, pumpkin and cucumber crops can be increased as much as 50 per cent by having one colony of bees per acre, yet very few bees are used for this purpose." He urged the continued and increased use of bees in orchards so that maximum fruit crops can be harvested.

Carnation Company
(Makes 4 to 6 servings)

Carnation Cream Sauce
2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 1/2 cups (large can) undiluted Carnation Evaporated Milk

Wintertime Casserole Ingredients
2 cups well-drained canned whole kernel corn
2 cups diced cooked ham or luncheon meat
1/2 cup grated American cheese
6 tomato slices

To prepare Carnation Cream Sauce, blend butter, flour and salt in skillet over low heat until smooth. Gradually add Carnation, stirring constantly until thickened and smooth, (about 2-3 minutes). Pour Carnation Cream Sauce over corn and ham, mixed together in buttered 1 1/2 quart casserole. Top casserole ingredients with grated cheese and tomato slices. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 25-30 minutes, or until cheese is melted.

SAYS GOP NEVER GAVE EVIDENCE OF REDS IN PAY

By JOHN CHADWICK

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Olin D. Johnston (D-S.C.) said Wednesday the Eisenhower administration has never offered evidence that it found a single Communist on the government payroll when it came into power.

He made the comment to newsmen as a Senate Civil Service subcommittee heads went to work on a report of its investigation of the employee security program set up by order of President Eisenhower in May 1953.

Chairman Philip Young of the Civil Service Commission estimated at a subcommittee hearing Tuesday that about 41 per cent of the employees listed as fired or resigned under the program were hired under the Eisenhower administration, which took over three years ago.

Seek Renewal

The hearing brought at least a temporary halt to the subcommittee's inquiry, begun last spring. Its authority expires at the end of this month, but Johnston has introduced a resolution to renew it for another year.

Johnston told newsmen he felt the inquiry had been helpful in throwing light on how the security program operates and on how figures are compiled on the number of employees listed as fired as security risks.

Johnston and other Democrats have accused Republicans of making "a political numbers game" out of the figures and of attempting to convey the impression that the Eisenhower administration found a lot of Communists or Communist sympathizers on the federal payroll.

He said the administration has "never shown" that it found a single Communist working for the government. Nor, he said, has it obtained the indictment of any federal employee under a law making it illegal for a Communist to work for the government.

Sen. Carlson of Kansas, the group's lone Republican, said in a separate interview he felt the subcommittee inquiry had done "some good." But he said he agreed with Young that the "basic concept" of the program is sound.

"We've had some problems," Carlson said. "There's no question about it." But he added he saw no necessity for any major overhaul of the program.

As of last June 30, the administration reported that since the start of the program in May 1953, a total of 3,586 employees had been dismissed and 5,681 had resigned before any determination was made of unfavorable information in their files.

SAYS GRADING EGGS PAYS OFF

HARRISBURG. — Careful grading of eggs by Pennsylvania producers brings extra income in out-of-state markets, Ray Morgan, of the State Bureau of Markets, declared during a panel discussion on price quotations, grading and egg marketing at Wednesday's Farm Show meeting of the State Poultry Federation.

Morgan also said that poultry industry leaders in neighboring states are working for legislation patterned on Pennsylvania's standards, established a few years ago. He explained that the standards, outlined and defined by groups from the poultry industry, provide for the following grades: Jumbo, extra large, large, medium, small or pullet, and peewee, with each weight specified by law. He insisted that more and more producers adhere to the standards each year.

The market specialist declared that the increased consumption of eggs in recent years can be attributed to the confidence that consumers can buy classified eggs. This reflects the fact "that more and more eggs are being graded and classified properly on the farm," he said.

E. J. Lawless Jr. of the State Bureau of Markets served as leader for the panel discussion. Paul Worcester, of Hanover, explained the difference in market quotations for eggs. He described the Urner-Barry quotations, which list premium prices separately, as compared to the U. S. Department of Agriculture quotations, which include premiums within the daily quotations.

Kenneth Birt, extension agricultural economist at Penn State, declared the "consumers want uniformly sized, candied, and cartoned eggs." In order to pack the kind of eggs consumers desire,

Rule Driver Guilty Of Illegal Usage

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP)—A U. S. district judge ruled Tuesday that John V. Franko, 28, of Kaska, Pa., charged with transporting a stolen car across state lines, was guilty only of unlawful use of the car. Judge A. D. Barksdale said the government failed to prove any felonious intent to permanently deprive the owner of his automobile. Franko testified that a chance acquaintance was picked up on a disorderly conduct charge after a drinking spree in Baltimore Saturday night. Franko said that after being released the acquaintance told him to take the car keys and pick him up later at a hotel.

Franko was asleep in the back seat of the car about 20 miles from Lynchburg when arrested by Virginia state troopers.

marketing agencies must be able to procure eggs of uniform size and quality, he said.

EXPERTS HEAR FOUR NEW CIVIL DEFENSE PLANS

HARRISBURG (AP)—Four proposals aimed at streamlining the state's civil defense operations were in the hands of local CD leaders today for study.

Dr. Richard Gerstell, director of the state civil defense council, said the proposals were presented to about 125 officials from almost every county of the commonwealth at a meeting Tuesday.

The purpose of the meeting, he said, was to sound out sentiment on the proposals which he listed as:

1. Changes in the attack warning signals.
2. Method of handling new federal-financed survival projects.
3. Accidental injury compensation for civil defense volunteers.
4. Methods of natural disaster operation.

Eliminates "All-Clear"

The attack warning revision, Gerstell explained, would eliminate public sounding of the all-clear signal after an attack. Instead a three-to-five minute steady siren signal would be sounded as the "alert" or "attention" sign.

"This would be the signal for all people to listen to radios and other news sources for instructions," he added. The instructions might come before an attack or after and cover rescue activities.

The present three-minute warbling "red" siren would remain as the "take cover" signal before a raid, Gerstell said.

Outlines Organization Plans

Gerstell also outlined plans for area organization of civil defense organizations for the purposes of rescue rather than on a geographical basis as at present. The plan would be financed by the federal government.

Gerstell told the group that funds available for the program will not be known until sentiment among local CD groups has solidified.

Such good things to put on toasted guava jelly for instance! Or granulated sugar mixed with cinnamon and finely chopped pecans! If you want a snack that isn't sweet, try buttering the split muffins, sprinkling with Parmesan cheese and broiling for a few seconds.

Will Demonstrate Methods Of Pruning

Demonstrations of proper methods of pruning apple, peach and cherry trees will be conducted Friday, January 20, by John U. Ruef, extension fruit specialist from Pennsylvania State University, it was announced today by County Agent Frank Zettle.

The first demonstration will be held in the orchards of Thomas Oyster along the McKnightstown-Arendtsville Rd. at 9:30 a.m. and in the afternoon at 1:30 o'clock a demonstration will be conducted at the orchards of William M. Lott along the Idaville-York Springs Rd.

Zettle also announced a small fruits meeting for Friday evening, January 20, at 8 o'clock in the library of the Biglerville Junior High School when Mr. Ruef will discuss cultural practices relating to raspberries and strawberries. Robert Kinley and John Pepper, extension disease and insect specialists, will discuss control measures for small fruits.

CHURCHILL GETS FRANKLIN MEDAL AS PEACE PRIZE

By STANLEY GODFREY

LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill Wednesday received the Benjamin Franklin award as the man who has done most to promote international understanding since World War II.

Joseph S. Clark Jr., former mayor of Philadelphia, handed the 80-year-old former British Prime Minister the gigantic silver medal and a book of Franklin's letters to commemorate the award in a modest ceremony at the home of Franklin occupied when he was agent here for the American Colonies.

The two men sat in deep armchairs round a little table in what was the drawing room of the Franklin house. A crystal chandelier sparkled over the table and a full size oil painting of Franklin's wife looked down on the room as the two men joked and chatted together.

Royalty, Scholars Attend

In a circle around the room, a short distance from Trafalgar Square, sat members of the British Royal Society and heads of academic bodies.

Churchill, wearing a black jacket and striped pants and polka dot tie,

Housework Easy Without Nagging Backache

Nagging backache, headache, muscular aches and pains may come from over-exertion, emotional upset or day to day stress and strain. And folks who eat and drink unwisely sometimes suffer mild bladder irritation...with that restless, uncomfortable feeling...if you are miserable and worn out because of these discomforts, Doan's Pills often help by their pain relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys—tending to increase the output of the 15 miles of kidney tubes.

grinned as Clark presented the medal designed by American-born British sculptor, Sir Jacob Epstein.

"We come here today, sir, to honor you for what you have done to bring the free world together, for your sense of history, for your magnanimity in victory, but most of all for your unrelenting search during the last 10 years for peace on earth and good will towards man."

Churchill Replies

Churchill rose slowly, put on a pair of half-moon glasses and told Clark: "I think it is a charming idea for the city of Philadelphia to award the Benjamin Franklin medal to an English representative."

"I shall always cherish the medal for sentimental reasons—but also as a work of art, worthy of Jacob Epstein's skill and fame. 'I shall cherish it too, because I am half-American myself—by blood anyway.'"

News Of Emmitsburg And Vicinity

NEW BUILDINGS ARE BEGUN AT ST. JOSEPH'S

Relying on the anticipated success of Sesquicentennial fund-raising efforts, the construction of two new buildings expected to cost $750,000 was recently begun at Saint Joseph College, Emmitsburg.

Located at the southwest corner of the campus, a red brick residence hall and a recreation building have been designed to harmonize with the rest of the campus buildings. The latter building will be the gift of the alumnae.

Shortage of rooms due to an increased enrollment in the past two years has made a new residence hall an absolute necessity, according to Sister Hilda, college president. In 1954-55, 40 sophomores occupied the third floor of Burlando, a section of the Central House. This year, another wing in Burlando was opened and some rooms were made triple to accommodate 20 more sophomores. Registration for incoming freshmen closed early in June, 1955, because of lack of room.

Not Yet Named

As yet unnamed, the proposed $600,000 residence hall will be a three-floor building of three wings, housing approximately 150 students in 75 double rooms. Each room will feature built-in tack boards, bookcases, and combination dressers and desks; the only movable furniture will be beds and chairs.

Each room is planned so that a large picture window will be in the center of the outside wall. Running water and closets with drawer space are also planned for the rooms. On each floor there are to be two shower and tub rooms. A laundry room equipped with appliances will serve each floor.

To Be Ready In Fall

To the west of Seton Hall, and connected with the new dormitory by a covered walk will be the recreation hall. Combining the functions of the Pines and Sunny-side, present campus recreational rooms which it will replace, this $150,000 gift of the Alumnae Association is to be a one-floor, ranch type building. Present blueprints call for a powder room to the right of the entrance, and cloak room for men to the left.

The large recreation room, which will approximate one and a half times the size of the present gym, will be furnished to provide smaller units for entertainment of guests. When needed these furnished units will be moved to form a dance floor to accommodate 175 couples. To the right of this large area will be a room similar to the Pines with a seating capacity of 80 and a kitchenette. Almost the entire west end of the building facing the mountains will be of glass from floor to roof.

The residence hall is slated to be ready for occupancy by September, 1956, and the recreation hall will be completed slightly later.

EMMITSBURG POLIO PARTY TO BE HELD JAN. 19

The annual March of Dimes card party in Emmitsburg will be held next Thursday, it was announced at a recent meeting of the VFW Auxiliary.

Etta Mae Norris was appointed chairman of the Mothers' March to be held, Tuesday, January 24, from 7 o'clock until 9 o'clock.

District collectors were appointed as follows: E. Main St., Jane Orndorff, Rita Felix, Martha Rosensteel; W. Main St., Blanche Kellholtz, Mary Hoke and Ann Stoner; N. Seton Ave., Madeline Rightmire and Betty Goulden; S. Seton Ave., Gloria Martin and Corrine Grindler; DePaul St., Eunice Neighbours and Norma Nussbaum; Frailey Rd., Etta Mae Norris and Anna Law; Lincoln Ave., Loretta Adlesberger; St. Anthony's and Mount St. Mary's, Bertha Sanders and Dolores Henke.

Helen Sanders and Helen Daugherty were recently chosen delegate and alternate, respectively, to the Community Fund.

A donation was voted to the National Home in Eaton Rapids, Mich., for the Maryland Cottage.

A district meeting will be held February 1 at 8:15 o'clock in Harney. Those who plan to attend are asked to notify Helen Sanders before January 20.

Officers will be elected March 1, President Helen Sanders announced.

The men's refreshment committee for February includes: Blanche Kellholtz, Grace McDonnell and Anna Law. Eleanor Burkner and Etta Mae Norris will serve women's refreshments at the next meeting.

Architects for the construction are Faulkner, Kingsbury and Stenhouse of Washington.

New Castle Man Is Killed On Turnpike

PITTSBURGH (AP) — An auto crashed into the side of a skidding tractor-trailer on the Pennsylvania Turnpike Wednesday and killed Walter Smith, of New Castle, driver of the car.

State police said the truck, operated by Linwood Mumbauer, 45, of Pennsylvania, Pa., skidded across the highway into the path of the auto.

The crash occurred several miles east of the Donegal Interchange. A similar crash about the same time injured five other persons.

Taken to Mt. Pleasant Hospital were Mrs. Alaise Carr, 25; her husband, Clarence, 31; Thomas Sidney, 20; his daughters, Beverly, 2, and Wanda, 4, all of Ozone Park, Long Island.

PLAN CONCERTS AND LECTURES

Saint Joseph College and Mount Saint Mary's College, both of Emmitsburg, will jointly sponsor a series of concerts and lectures during the next three months.

The following presentations are scheduled: January 20, The Angelaires, a harp quintet rendition of Spanish, French, English and American music; February 22, a lecture on "Horse Sense in America" by Dr. Shane MacCarthy, lecturer and educator; February 28, a lecture by Riley Hughes, professor at Georgetown University, on "Sense and Censorship" in honor of Catholic Press Month; March 5, a concert of classical and popular marimba music by Beverly Anne Welch.

Student productions will be presented as follows: February 26, the annual one-act play contest in which Dramatic Club members will compete for the "Our Lady of Drama Trophy" and March 13, a joint concert by the Saint Joseph College Glee Club and the Glee Club of Loyola College, Baltimore.

FINED $10,000 AND JAILED FOR DODGING TAXES

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A Lewis-town hatchery operator has been fined $10,000 and sentenced to six months in prison for evading income tax payments on $610,000 of corporation funds he transferred to his own account.

He is B. C. Raffensberger, 65. He was freed on $1,000 bail until Feb. 1 to allow him time to arrange his business affairs.

Raffensberger was sentenced yesterday in U.S. District Court by Judge Thomas J. Clary, who called the case "extremely unfortunate."

Thomas Devine, special agent for the U.S. Treasury Department, said Raffensberger's total tax liability was more than one million dollars.

Thomas B.K. Ringe, Raffensberger's attorney, asked the court to free his client so he could operate his business and pay back the government. The plea was refused.

Reveals All Assets

Ringe said "illness and threats of illness" to Raffensberger and his 73-year-old wife led him to evading the taxes. Raffensberger, Ringe said, was willing to make full restitution and had revealed all his assets to the government. Devine corroborated the statement.

Judge Clary said it was Raffensberger's age and health which made his sentence as light as it was.

"This is probably the largest tax evasion case it has been my misfortune to meet as a judge."

Judge Clary levied $5,000 fines on two separate counts and two separate prison terms of six months each, to run concurrently.

Among the character witnesses who appeared for Raffensberger were H. Clyde Boardman, president of a Lewistown bank; Harold P. Hanna, president of the board of Lewistown Hospital; and John J. Burley, of Drexel Hill, a business associate.

WOMEN'S CLASS
HOLDS MEETING

Mrs. Clair A. Beamer, Prince St., was hostess to the Ever Willing Class of St. John's Lutheran Church at the monthly meeting on Tuesday evening. There was group singing, followed with the Scripture read by the class teacher, Mrs. Viola Badders. The group sang "A Prayer Song." The program included a vocal solo by Mrs. Bernice Yealy, accompanied by Mrs. June Rife; vocal duet, Mrs. Ruth Streivig and Mrs. Hope King; piano solos, Mrs. June Rife; piano solo, Miss Joanne Beamer. The class discussed the selling of costume jewelry. During the social hour, group games were enjoyed and refreshments were served by Mrs. Beamer. The class will meet again on Tuesday, February 14, at the home of Mrs. Mary Ellen Bortner, Crouse Park. The Brownies of Troop 45 had their first five-minute expression period at the meeting on Wednesday afternoon, an innovation which is to be continued as a part of each meeting. Members participating were Joyce Hymiller, who played a xylophone selection; Marianne Rudisill, Sally Busbey and Loreita O'Donnell, who gave a baton twirling demonstration, and Carolyn Kump, who gave a string puppet demonstration. Each week several members of the troop will entertain. The troop was divided into groups, to discuss their choice of projects for the immediate future. The groups' spokesmen presented their choice to the leaders. The projects chosen were making yarn dolls and learning to crochet. Next Wednesday, those who prefer to learn to crochet will take a No. 6 crochet hook and those planning to make dolls will take a skein of yarn. It was decided to start a scrap book for use of the troop, to include pieces of new material, pieces of cotton, old felt hats, thread, needles, etc. These items may be put in the scrap box whenever available. Mrs. John Kump and Mrs. Emerson F. Muller are the troop leaders, and Miss Mary Ritter is the troop aide.

DULLES TELLS HOW YANKEES STOPPED REDS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles has gained a reputation for sometimes stating the harsh facts of his diplomacy in blunt undiplomatic words which stir up controversy.

Today, it appears, he may have done it again.

He may also have sparked a debate in this election campaign year on the effectiveness of the "policy of deterrence" he credits with holding the Chinese Communists at bay in Korea and Indochina in 1953, and more recently in the Formosa area.

In addition, he seems to have posed sharply the question of the extent to which fear of American readiness to wage atomic war is a brake on Communist expansion.

In an article in Life magazine, but today, Dulles is quoted as saying it is "a pretty fair inference" that America's readiness to fight on a broader scale if necessary brought the Korean War to an end and that the same "policy of deterrence" kept the Red Chinese from marching into Indochina prior to mid-1954 and has stopped them in the Formosa area.

He was also quoted as saying: "You have to take chances for peace, just as you must take chances in war. Some say that we were brought to the verge of war (in the three instances cited). Of course we were brought to the verge of war.

"The ability to get to the verge without getting into war is the necessary art. If you cannot master it, you inevitably get into war. If you try to run away from it, if you are scared to go to the brink, you are lost.

"We've had to look it square in the face . . . We walked to the brink and we looked it in the face. We took strong action."

The three situations Dulles cited took somewhat different forms. In general the United States told the Communists, by various public or private means, that it might go to war if they went too far—if they attacked Formosa, for instance.

Prefers To Give Facts

Any secretary of state has many critics at home and abroad ready to seize on his words, as well as defenders. Dulles apparently feels that an unvarnished statement helps bring home the fundamentals of his policies, even at the cost of public argument.

His present words, however, have another dimension. They are quoted in the context of an article which claims major achievements for the policy of "deterrence"—even in the case of the Indochina settlement which lost a large portion of Viet Nam to the Communists.

Whether it could have been prevented, whether it might have been worse and the effect of Dulles'

STATE CROP GROUP MEETS

HARRISBURG.—How one farmer saves the cost of two harrowings and one cultivation—and grows corn crops equal to or better than average—was reported to members of the Pennsylvania here Wednesday during the Pennsylvania Farm Show.

Cecil J. Irvin of State College, prominent seed grower and formerly farm superintendent at Pennsylvania State University, described a method of minimum tillage using tractor wheel marks for the seedbed. In 1954 this system yielded 125 bushels of shelled corn per acre.

Irvin plows for corn just before planting time. He uses a spike tooth harrow or rotary hoe behind a three bottom plow. The rough and loose soil texture holds water and helps to keep weeds from growing. The corn is sprayed with 2,4-D just before coming up and cultivated only twice after that.

Balked By Drought
The farm is located four miles southwest of State College on limestone soil with excessive drainage and a very low water table. Irvin started this minimum tillage system when he saw his corn depend almost entirely on rains during July and early August.

GENE AUTRY TO PLAY HERSHEY

HERSHEY, Pa. — Two of television's top Western personalities, Gene Autry and Gail Davis, who portray Annie Oakley, will appear in Autry's "Hit Show Of 1956," coming to Hershey Sports Arena for two performances on Friday, February 10.

Autry, who is also a popular movie star, will present his performing horses, "Champion" and "Little Champ," as well as Pat Buttram, his comedy partner in the various mediums of entertainment.

To give the show an authentic western musical background, there will be the vocal and instrumental music of the Cass County Boys, plus the Promenaders, a square dance team featured on the Ozark Jubilee show.

The Rudells, seen recently on the Ed Sullivan show, will present their trampoline comedy, and the Strongs, exponents of trick roping and bull-whip cracking, will demonstrate their talents.

The Cycling Villenaves, recent performers on Big Top, and Carl Comer's Melody Ranch Orchestra will round out the two-hour show.

There will be a matinee performance at 4:45 o'clock, with the evening show scheduled for 8:15 p.m. Children will be admitted for half price at both shows.

Pvt. D. R. Overbaugh Arrives On Okinawa

Army Pvt. Dennis R. Overbaugh, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Overbaugh, Hanover, and a graduate of Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown, in 1954, recently arrived on Okinawa and is now a member of the 75th Regimental Combat Team.

A strong U. S. outpost in the Far East, Okinawa is located off the coast of China between Formosa and the southern tip of Japan.

Overbaugh, a wireman in the team's Headquarters Company, entered the Army in April 1955 and completed basic training at Fort Dix, N. J.

Abbottstown

ABBOTTSTOWN — G. Rodgers Wildasin was re-elected president of the Abbottstown borough council at a recent meeting. The oath of office was administered by Burgess Gerald Herman to the newly elected members, Homer Hafer, Gilbert Zeigler, Stanley Ensminger and Jacob Haer. The Abbottstown State Bank was re-elected treasurer and Bernard Anthony, secretary.

Committees appointed for the next two years included: Homer Hafer, Gilbert Zeigler and Paul Lookenbill, road committee; G. Rodgers Wildasin and Edward Kroul, light committee; Jacob Haer and Stanley Ensminger, ordinance committee; Stanley Ensminger, pole inspector.

Robert Perry was admitted for treatment at the Harrisburg Hospital after a fall while working. He suffered injuries to his right leg.

A joint birthday party was held Saturday evening in honor of two cousins, Nancy Stambaugh and Linda Berkheimer, who observed their 12th birthdays.

A shower was held Monday night at the home of Mrs. Helen Haines for Mrs. Gilbert Zeigler. Mrs. Grace Chubb was co-hostess. About 15 guests were present.

The Junior girls of St. John's Lutheran Sunday School held a surprise party for their teacher, Mrs. John Lillich, recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Horsman. About 20 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Witters and family spent the weekend at Mrs. Witters' family home in Minersville, Pa.

John Glass recently entertained at a family dinner.

Mrs. Susan L. Baker has been admitted as a patient to the York Hospital.

The local card club will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Henry Landis.

The Ever Ready Class of Emmanuel Reformed Sunday School will meet Thursday night at the home of Mrs. Lester Baker. Mrs. Lloyd Baker will be co-hostess.

France, Spain Unite Forces Against Riffs

LARACHE, Spanish Morocco (AP)—France and Spain have agreed on joint action against Riff rebels harassing the French in Morocco. Lt. Gen. Rafael Garcia Valino, the Spanish high commissioner, and French Resident General Andre Dubois decided at a meeting Tuesday their forces would cooperate in suppressing the rebellious tribesmen along their joint frontier.

The four-hour conference in this Spanish sector was the first meeting in three years of the top officials of the two protectorates. Informants said they made progress in reconciling conflicting policies which have caused tension between France and Spain ever since the French threw out Sultan Mohammed Ben Youssef in 1953.

The United States is one of the very few countries where most of the railway mileage is privately owned.

Man Killed In First Fatal Crash Of Year

WAYNESBORO, Pa. (AP)—George Fetterhoff, 46, Greencastle, died Wednesday of injuries suffered in a two-car automobile collision Tuesday night in which three other men were injured. It was Waynesboro's first fatal traffic accident in 1956.

Elmer C. Abel, 31, Greencastle, and Roy L. Deardorf, 34, also Greencastle, the latter driver of one of the cars, were described in serious condition at Waynesboro Hospital.

Arnold L. Myers, 24, Waynesboro, R. 3, driver of the other car, escaped with laceration.

Added orange rind to packaged vanilla pudding and pie filling. Serve the pudding over membrane-free sections of fresh orange. Save some of the orange sections for a garnish.

Throws Girl's Body Into Hudson River

NEW YORK (AP)—A 25-year-old salesman from Warren, Ohio, told police Wednesday that he dumped the body of Jacqueline Smith, 20-year-old fashion designer, into the Hudson River after she killed herself in his apartment on Christmas Eve. It was reported at police headquarters.

The salesman was identified at headquarters as Thomas G. Daniels, of 224 East 27th St. It was said he made a statement concerning the missing girl at the West 100th St. station, where he underwent questioning by police.

A police launch immediately began grappling the Hudson River between 96th and 92nd streets in an attempt to recover the young woman's body.
